

A TASTE OF SHALOM

Theological reflection for holistic activism

A FREE one-day event giving you the space and tools to explore how to be a more effective activist for change.

Drawing on the resources and materials of Peace School and the SPEAK network, this day has been designed to enable you to - Reflect on your worldview in greater depth; examine how our view of the world effects how we impact it; investigate the biblical vision of shalom (wholeness/peace); explore prophecy as challenging the false and demonstrating truth; and discover community as the bedrock for sustaining your activism in the long-haul.

To book a place please email info@peaceschool.org.uk or call 07930 364733.

For more information on the day please visit www.peaceschool.org.uk/news/article/24

Date: Saturday 15th May 2010
Time: 09.30 – 16.00
Location: Brunswick Parish Church, Brunswick St, Manchester, M13 9YX
Cost: FREE! Fairtrade refreshments and a vegan soup lunch will be provided

Peace School is a year-long programme exploring spiritual activism from a Christian perspective. SPEAK is a network of students and young adults committed to prayer and campaigning on issues of global injustice. This day has been designed as both a stand alone event and a taster for those interested in becoming more involved with Peace School and SPEAK.

